

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES.

NEW LONDON COUNTY.

MONTVILLE.

Local Delegates to Norwich Conference—Thames Lodge Attends Baptist Service Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Arabella Latimer was in New London Wednesday visiting relatives. Denison Reynolds died at his home Wednesday after an illness of several months.

Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Chappell attended the ministers' conference in Norwich, Tuesday morning, and also the midwinter conference of Bible schools held in Central Baptist church in the afternoon and evening of the same day.

Mrs. Arabella Latimer and Mrs. A. P. Mitchell attended the Bible school conference Tuesday afternoon. Miss Bessie Chapman was called to Kensington by illness in her brother's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner were at Lakes Pond Sunday.

The following delegates from the Union Baptist church were in attendance at the Bible school convention in Norwich Tuesday afternoon and evening: Mrs. Edwin Henry, Mrs. Fred Phillips, Norman Allen, Mrs. Fred Hope, Mrs. Melvin Furber, Mrs. Ray Woodmansee, Miss Grace Lyon, Miss Jennie Wood and Miss Nettie Gridley.

The funeral services of Arnold Rudd were held at his home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. G. C. Chappell officiated. Burial was in Uncasville cemetery.

Wordiness and Trust was the subject at the midweek prayer meeting at the Union Baptist church Thursday evening.

Big Audience at Entertainment.

Palmer Memorial hall was crowded last Friday night when the entertainment, "The Good Old Times," was given. Fifty dollars of the sum received from the sale of tickets has been given for the church repair fund.

Odd Fellows Attend Service.

Thames lodge, No. 22, I. O. O. F., attended the services at the Union Baptist church in a body Sunday forenoon, February 8. About sixty members were present. As they entered the building a committee of four young ladies presented each a carnation. The pastor, Rev. G. C. Chappell, conducted the services and the singing after opening and closing with the Lord's Prayer and the responsive reading. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latimer sang beautifully the duet, "O Thou, Who Madest Earth and Heaven." The pastor's subject was "The Threefold Cord." The offering was unusually large for church expenses, and the missionary offering was so large that the pastor was encouraged to raise the balance necessary to make up the full amount of the budget.

HANOVER.

Guild Preparing for Washington's Birthday Social—Allison Ladd R. F. D. Carrier.

The Ladies' Missionary society met on Wednesday, Jan. 26, with Miss Margaret Eadie. Papers were read by Miss Warwick, Mrs. W. S. Lee and Miss Ellen Peck. Refreshments were served to twenty guests.

Miss Christina Tucker of East Lyme has been the guest here of Mrs. James Tucker.

The family of Robert Wicks of Scotland station are occupying a part of the Witter homestead. At this place are quarantined the woodcutters from the sawmill station on the Myron Allen farm in Scotland.

The Thursday night cottage meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James Harvey.

The members of the Ladies' guild are rehearsing a drama for a Washington birthday social.

An Lincoln anniversary exercise will be given by the Sunday school next Sunday.

Gladya Crombie has been ill during the week.

Nelson Adams is in New York.

Allison Ladd has the appointment on the rural delivery route from Baltimore through Canterbury and Scotland.

LEDYARD.

Grangers Heard Talk on Fertilizers—C. A. Main Buys Farm.

Mrs. Asa J. Sheldon, who has been visiting several days in Mystic and Groton, has returned home.

Everett Brown of Colchester was a Sunday guest of his father, William N. Brown.

Mrs. John M. Gray, who has been quite sick with bronchial trouble, is improving.

Prof. E. H. Jenkins gave a talk on Fertilizers at the Ledyard grange on Saturday evening.

Calvin R. Main has purchased the farm on Road No. 1, recently owned by his brother, the late John I. Main.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Main, who have been sick with grip colds, are now getting better.

Mrs. Daniel E. Gray had charge of the Christian Endeavor service at the church on Sunday evening, which was very helpful.

Miss Marion Gallup of West Haven was an over-Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gallup.

Eighteen attended the fellowship meeting at North Stonington Wednesday.

Mrs. Enos M. Gray spent Thursday in Mystic.

Ellsworth Gray is staying with his uncle, Allen Harvey, in Stonington.

FITCHVILLE.

A. M. Miller was in Colchester on Tuesday attending the funeral of a friend.

Jeremiah Lynch of Hartford spent a few days this week with his father, John Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ross of Leffingwell spent Sunday with Mrs. Martha Leffingwell.

Miss Margaret McManus and Miss Kithley McCarthy spent Tuesday with friends in Norwich town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Miller are in Providence today.

James Burke has moved his family from Bozrahville to Riverside avenue.

A gray horse belonging to a Jewish baker of Norwich ran away from the driver in Yantic Monday and was stopped near the mill here, after having freed itself from the cart.

A dance was given in the hall Monday night by the Academic orchestra of Norwich.

CLARK'S FALLS.

Pond Fills at Last—Iceman Perry Harvests Crop.

John B. Perry harvested enough ice on Tuesday to fill his ice pond. Mr. Perry had to wait for his ice pond to fill with water before getting his crop, but now has a good quantity of ice on hand.

Mrs. Ruth Hill has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Cundiff, at Ashaway.

Dwight Merritt of Ashaway was in this village Thursday.

The Abel Collins farm is without an occupant. Frank Collins left to occupy the Daniel Wright farm.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick and daughters, Flora and Evelyn, were guests Sunday of Horace Palmer and family.

LISBON.

Town Experiences Severe Loss in Death of Deacon E. C. Strong.

In the death of Deacon Edward C. Strong, whose funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, Lisbon lost a good man, whom the town can ill afford to spare. He loved philosophy, music; he went to the singing school in Norwich last winter, going alone seven miles. He had a genius for hard work on his farm. He will be missed by the church community, young and old. Among the flowers at the funeral were a sheaf of wheat from George Strong, a brother, from Colchester; a wreath from the church, and a six-seven car from the church, and a six-seven car from his Sunday school class. The bearers were C. A. Mott, F. E. Hyde, J. H. Kennedy and O. H. Irons. Burial was in the Ames cemetery.

Notes.

Many have enjoyed skating this week.

Miss Ethel Kennedy attended the dance given in Parish hall Friday evening, being the guest of Miss Eunice Peterson.

The school at District No. 4 closed Tuesday afternoon on account of the funeral of Deacon Strong.

LISBON TAXPAYERS.

List as Completed by Assessors Kanahan, Meyer and Wheeler—Amount on Which They Are Assessed.

Following is the list of taxpayers in Lisbon and amount on which they pay taxes, as completed by the assessors of Lisbon, F. L. Kanahan, George J. Meyer and Charles H. Wheeler, Jr.:

Adams, Jennie M.	$850
Adams, Albert P.	55
Adams, A. A.	347
Adams, F. W.	1,035
Ballou, Frederick	200
Barber, R. R.	4,715
Bayreuther, Christian	1,500
Barrett, Mrs. Flora A.	2,360
Benjamin, Mrs. Ida	1,885
Benker, John	1,885
Bennett, Alfred	1,885
Bennett, Mrs. Ida	1,885
Bradshaw, Charles	1,097
Brown, Mrs. Phebe B.	2,750
Bromley, George G.	1,280
Bromley, John	1,280
Broughton, James	987
Budget, Charles	1,905
Bugbee, Mrs. Carrie M.	1,800
Burleson, E. F.	2,350
Bushnell, H. P. estate	845
Campbell, P. B. and E. F.	1,097
Carver, Mrs. Jessie R.	2,205
Chapman, Annie C.	1,475
Club House	3,441
Connell, M. J.	2,441
Connelley, Fannie	2,441
Craig, F. A. and McNeely, M. J.	2,110
Davis, Emory A.	1,405
Davis, George A.	1,405
Davis, Mrs. Marcel and Jules	2,110
Donnelly, James W.	699
Douglass, George	1,050
Duffie, Della	2,770
Dunham, Alfred	2,770
Feld, Peter	150
Fitch, C. H.	4,900
Fitch, R. W.	2,815
Freestone, Jennie E.	625
Gaucher, P.	100
Geist, Paul	2,435
Geist, Joseph	1,895
Heibel, John G.	1,165
Henrich, Mathias	1,775
Houglund, Louisa A.	475
Houglund, W. D.	450
Hofer, John M.	1,900
Hoelck, Mrs. John M.	3,515
Hoelck, August	40
Hoffman, Laurence	700
Howard, George A.	500
Hull, Harry L.	100
Hyde, Frank E.	3,355
Irons, Mrs. Amy L.	670
Johnson, Charles F.	649
Johnson, Herbert E.	40
Johnson, Francis H.	890
Johnson, C. H.	3,390
Kanahan, Mrs. Harriette B.	1,590
Kanahan, Mrs. Susan F.	1,940
Kennedy, J. H.	3,046
Kennedy, George A.	145
Kinne, F. B.	145
Kraus, Charles	1,041
Kraus, Nicholas	2,855
Kraus, Oscar	1,600
Lamont, Fred	415
Larkham, Sarah L.	1,439
Learned, Herman E.	1,720
Learned, Augustus E.	1,145
Leathers, Albert	1,273
Lee, John M.	2,587
Lees, Elizabeth	1,670
Lyon, Mrs. I. Sutliff	1,670
McGregory, Mrs. Mary	705
Mehis, Arnold	100
Mell, Clarence A.	2,194
Meyer, George J.	1,060
Meyer, Adolph	1,120
Mortuary, John	750
Morton, William	1,150
Mulliken, Ellen	1,120
Oddie, Agnes	1,120
Palmer, George I.	1,825
Palmer, Horace	137
Palmer, James B.	4,239
Palmer, J. B. Jr.	825
Palmer, L. N. B.	75
Parovis, Victor	950
Parovis, Frank	830
Phillips, J. C.	1,380
Phillips, Thomas D.	2,715
Phillips, William M.	2,285
Plunkett, Thomas	750
Preston, Edward E.	2,580
Ray, Charles H.	2,000
Read, Ransom T.	650
Read, A. F.	4,650
Richards, H. L. and John	950
Roux, Joseph N.	3,077
Schmidt, Charles	6,432
Schmidt, John	1,432
Seidel, George	925
Seider, Michael	1,000
Seizer, Lewis A.	1,895
Shaw, Robert W.	430
Shaw, James T.	5,310
Spencer, John	3,075
Steinkamp, Nadoim	430
Strong, E. C.	3,002
Talbot, Edith G.	3,872
Talbot, estate Almira	2,670
Taylor, Mrs. L. F.	2,670
Theault, Henry	1,437
Wade, James L.	1,949
Walker, George	1,570
Walker, Thomas	1,300
Waters, F. G.	825
Waters, Sherman H.	1,174
Waters, William H.	800
Whalley, John	250
Whalley, Mrs. Caroline A.	1,850
Wheeler, Charles H. Jr.	2,875
Whittaker, Elizabeth	700
Whittaker, Thomas estate	700
Wieland, Barbara	1,425
Wilcox, E. C.	675
Wilcox, Martha R., trustee	1,000
Wilcox, R. R.	1,075
Wolf, Charles D.	1,075
Yerrington, Frank H.	4,095
Young, George S.	1,175

Notes.

Archer, Mary E.

Aspinock Co. The

Blissville, Inc. The

Bromley, Charles B.

Bugbee, Harriett W.

Breed, Mrs. Sarah A.

Cone, William

Chapman, Leonard

Danahy, L. D.

Danahy, L. D. Honor

Freestone, Mrs. Annie

Gardner, W. K.

Graham, J. W.

Graham, James

Garrington, John

Hadley, Mrs. Sarah B.

Higgins, Eliza E.

Hermann, Jacob

Kramer & Henderson

Kenyon, Sarah

McDermott, Mary N.

McDermott, James

McDermott, Peter

McDermott, Air Power Co.

N. Y. N. H. & H. R. Co.

Palmer & Rogers.

Paquette, Sam

Pettier, Dammar

Phonograph Mills

Phillips, C. H.

Ploss, Andrew

Potter, Joseph

Proctor, Chas. Edw.

Proctor, Edward

Ross, George A. and A. J. M.

Ross, Anna

Spellows, Joseph and Annie

Tillinghast, Waldo

Uncasville Mfg. Co.

Willcox, David

Young, S. G.

*Including 10 per cent. for failure to have lists in Nov. 1.

NORTH STONINGTON.

Calvin H. Woodward's Funeral—Rev. Mr. Earnshaw Preaches at Fellowship Meeting.

The funeral of Calvin H. Woodward was held at the residence of his son-in-law, E. Frank White, Wednesday morning. The service was conducted by the Rev. Lucian Drury. A quartette sang two hymns, Abide With Me, and The Christian's Good Night. Burial was in the Ames cemetery. The funeral party, going by special car over the Norwich-Westerly trolley road. Rev. Mr. Drury conducted the funeral service at the grave.

A fellowship meeting of local congregational churches was held in this village Wednesday. Rev. Mr. Earnshaw of Mystic delivered the sermon in the morning. The afternoon was given to the discussion of the topic, The Layman's Place in the Church. Dinner was served by the entertainment church.

Rev. Mr. Lucian Drury attended the Sunday school conference in the Central Baptist church at North Stonington.

Rev. G. W. Rigler, D.D., of Westerly called on friends here Monday.

Mrs. Harry D. Jewell and daughter and Mrs. E. B. Smith of Michigan are visiting at the Congregational parsonage.

A number of new books have been added to the Wheeler library. North Stonington has taken great pride and delight in this library.

LEFFINGWELL.

Sunshine Band Has Interesting Meeting—Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardner of Yantic spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Rose.

Mrs. Andrew Gardner has been at the home of Mrs. Pendleton of Wauwatu Hill recently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Beard and daughters, Elsie and Evelyn, are ill with the measles.

Mrs. Carrie Park and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Norwich, were the guests Saturday and Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John Rose.

The Sunshine Band met Saturday at the home of the president, Miss Ruth Palmer. The following programme was carried out: Singing, Take Time to Be Holy, and Rescue the Perishing; reading, a paper, Missions in China, by the members present.

On account of the secretary, Myra Ellis, being ill, no report was read. The collection amounted to $6.00, only seven being present. The Missionary education closed the meeting. A social time was spent afterwards in finishing putting a bed quilt together.

Clarence Leffingwell of Norwich was a recent guest at the home of his parents in this place.

GOSHEN.

Mercury 14 Degrees Below—Repairing Paper Mill—Thunderstorm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckley of Norwich were with friends here Sunday.

With mercury 14 degrees below zero, Monday was the coldest day of the winter, the high wind also making the day doubly unpleasant.

The L. A. S. met with Mrs. E. W. Jones Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Harrison, with a force of helpers, are making repairs at the paper mill preparatory to starting up the mill in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Spaulding of North street spent Sunday with the family of J. Stark.

William Stark of Norwich was with friends at Hillsdale farm Tuesday.

Mrs. Lydia Gilbert is suffering from a slight cold at her Spithhead home.

Albert S. Brainard has returned to his occupation at Westerly after quite a lay-off.

There was quite a hard thunder-shower here Wednesday evening, which seemed quite unusual in February.

WATERFORD.

Granite Cutters Meet—Engineer's Peculiar Whistle.

Mrs. Frank Howard and Mrs. H. Willis Manwaring were at East Lyme Monday night, attending the Podunk Limited, given in Cornsack hall.

The granite cutters of Waterford branch met for the despatch of important business Wednesday evening at Cornsack hall.

The meeting was the occasion of the first thunderstorm of the season.

For a number of years Dan Knowles used to speak to his father and mother as he crossed Black Point bridge, then he learned to blow a peculiar whistle, so that everybody on the line has come to know when he passes.

Mrs. Lydia Gilbert is suffering from a slight cold at her Spithhead home.

Albert S. Brainard has returned to his occupation at Westerly after quite a lay-off.

Ferdinand Hancox is clearing off a lot of wood at Logger Hill farm.

BETHEL.

Fireman Scalded When Steampipe Burst.

Mrs. R. H. Young has been spending a few days in Willimantic.

Rev. E. C. May, of Bethel, preached in the Bethel M. E. church and administered the sacrament.

J. G. Bill has been suffering with a cold.

The fireman at the steam sawmill on the Wilcox lot was quite badly burned on his lower limbs by the bursting of a steampipe.

Another one of the men has become so badly poisoned he has been obliged to return to his home in Jewett City.

WINDHAM COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK.

Local Basketball Team Wins from State Agricultural College—Missionary Social.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson closed their house on Wednesday and left for New York to spend the rest of the winter.

Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Waters entertained the pastor's class on Wednesday evening.

Several from town attended the reception to Gov. Frank B. Weeks in Putnam Tuesday evening by the Business Men's association.

A missionary social was held in the chapel, Friday evening, with Mrs. B. R. R. and Mrs. H. K. Safford as hostesses.

A basketball game last Saturday between Woodstock academy and a team from Storrs agricultural college resulted in a victory for the local team by a score of 25 to 23.

Mrs. James J. Williamson has returned from a visit in New Haven and Hartford.

CANTERBURY.

Pupils Perfect in Attendance—Entertainment for School Library.

F. L. Bennett spent part of last week with relatives in Hartford and vicinity.

Mrs. H. F. Williams from Coventry has come to stay awhile with her husband, H. F. Williams, who is caring for the Miller place. Miss Williams is also with her parents.

Misses Edna M. Bliss and Inez E. Williams were visitors last week with relatives in Norwich.